

LUODA

BIOGRAPHY

Hailing from Melbourne, Australia, Luoda harnesses its members' extensive songwriting and performance experience to create songs of profound depth.

Having pledged a lifelong commitment to refining their craft, each member of Luoda brings extraordinary musicality to the band. Members have written, recorded and performed in a staggering array of styles and contexts, spanning Avant-Garde Jazz to Acoustic Folk-Pop to Heavy Metal to Symphonic Orchestral music, to audiences all over the world in jazz clubs, theatres, stadiums, and through television sets.

Luoda's songs are the product of this experience - the collective "hive mind" - where ten extraordinary musicians create and operate at full power.

"A compelling body of work of pure musical and vocal brilliance by some of the finest singers in our country. I personally adore this album and the vocal arrangements are first class. It excites me" - Anthony Callea

"This is a beautiful album bristling with luscious harmonies and wonderful melodies. A must listen to some of Melbourne's finest musicians" - Chong Lim
